

You may think you know PDQ Bach
but you haven't heard about The Lost Years in Italy

Third Chair Chamber Players offers an exclusive glimpse into this heretofore unknown period in the life of PDQ Bach, as related by his multilingual great-nephew's third cousin twice-removed, Wasgeht Hola Oly Bach (otherwise known as WHO Bach). The esteemed Professor Bach will be joining us to share his personal research and insights into that dark and mysterious period in the life of his infamous ancestor.

We invite you to join us for a fun and festive evening in celebration of this historic discovery. Chef Joan (Reist) of Driftwood will prepare authentic slow-cooked Italian sugo (or pasta sauce, as we call it on this side of the pond) from an old family recipe, with a version for vegetarians as well as meat lovers. Caterer extraordinaire Kasia (Bradley) of Meeker will provide insalata fresco (fresh salad) and a decadent chocolate confetto (dessert). Complimentary vino and other beverages will be served throughout the evening.

Also in store is a silent auction of unique and exclusive items (covering all price ranges); a live auction full of once-in-a-lifetime opportunities (Stephen Dinsmore, Aspen Music Festival, Soteria Spa, Chicago's Magnificent Mile, just to drop a few names); and a hilarious live concert of some of PDQ Bach's masterpieces. Festivities begin at 5:30 pm, and you will be home safe and snug by 9!
